

Boy

Ronald Dahl

Author of the book

- The author of this book is Ronald Dahl who born in 16 September in Cardiff in UK but he is Norwegian from source. This book is based on his real life. He wrote many book but his most popular book is „Charlie and Chocolate Factory" He died in 23 November in 1990.

The main character's in a book

- In a book called „boy" we have only one main character. The main character is a writer this book so the main character is Ronald Dahl. In the beginning of book he wrote a short sentences that means he had no easy life, so we can say it's his memorials.

Content of the book

- In the book we have few stories. In this memorial author wrote about his hard moment in his life. For example in book we can read that when he had 9 years old and he have to go to boarding school. For sure for him it's was very hard to live without family, and that so far from home. Of course in book we have funny moments.

The end of the book

In the end of the book we can read about that our main character of this book is going to another boarding school, all the boys have some quest there and he must do it. In that boarding school all person got full box of bar of chocolate, and he wanted know how the biggest comapnies do chocolate. Later author wrote about that many years later he needed a historiy to write his new book. He remebered situation from boarding school he wrote a new book called „Charlie and chocolate factory"

